FORMER DAYTONIAN DEAD.

We copy the following obituary from the Eustis Lake Region:

"After an illness in which he was a patient sufferer for many months, Warner G. Mendenhall passed away at his home in Bloomfield, Fla., on Monday the 11th inst. Mr. Mendenhall was born in Richmond, Indiana, May 9, 1873, being at the time of his decease in the 29th year of his age. He received his education at Eustis Seminary, at which institution he was a much loved pupil. Mr. Mendenhall early showed a most marked ability for business. He established a large furniture and hardware store in Fort Myers, in this State, and afterwards he opened a similar business in Daytona. Close application impaired his health, and he sought restoration in Colorado Springs, where he also engaged in successful business operations. While in business at Fort Myers, he was active in organizing a Christian Endeavor society for young people. In Daytona, he took much interest in the work of the society. "Mr. Mendenhall was popular with all classes. He was widely and favorably known. He was a good counselor, his judgment being quick and sure, and reached by a swift intuition. His sympathies were active and his attachments strong; he will be greatly missed by his many friends, who loved him for his amiable qualities and now mourn his untimely death. "Mr. Mendenhall was married June 24, 1896, to Miss Mary Richmond, who survives him, with two young children, to mourn his demise."

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Lee, of Washington, D. C., have arrived and are pleasantly quartered for the season at the Oaks. This is their first visit to Daytona and they are very much pleased with our city.

Allen Trowell and Miss Edna Morris were united in marriage at the home of J. B. Case, at Port Orange, last Sunday. They left on the afternoon train for Fort Pierce, where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Trowell having secured a position in a store at that place.

An advertisement reaches two kinds of customers, those whose needs are immediate, and a class who will not make purchases until some period in the future. What a merchant says through the columns of a newspaper is often of as great ultimate value when applicable to the latter class as to the first. When the time comes to buy it is only natural that the purchaser will visit the store to which his attention has continually been directed through this modern and effective medium.

Capes and jackets at Hill's.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Board of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, recently held in Cincinnati, the date for the meeting of the annual session of the St. Johns River Conference was set for January 16th, 1902. Bishop Fitzgerald, of Saint Louis, Missouri, will preside. Bishop Fitzgerald is the president of the well known Ocean Grove Campmeeting and Chautauqua Assembly, and will be known to many of our readers. As the session of the conference will be held in Daytona many will have the opportunity to hear him.

Boston Brown Bread and Baked Beans at the Gramling Bakery to-day.

Before leaving DeLand for his home in Philadelphia, John B. Stetson left with President Forbes, of the university, the money to finish off the rooms in Chaudoin Hall. The demand for rooms for women is so great that the building is nearly full now. A large number of rooms have been engaged by students from Chicago, who are to come for the winter terms. So many have engaged quarters that the university trustees find it necessary to finish these rooms for their use. There are now six buildings occupied as dormitories for the school. In addition to the two main buildings, Chaudoin and Stetson Halls, there have been added this year the Hudson House, Colonel Stetson House and Hamilton House, all of which, with Conrad Hall, are well filled.

Station Agent R. F. Hatch and Mrs. Hatch and young son have returned to Daytona after an absence of a month. Mrs. Hatch and baby have been visiting with relatives at Rockledge, while Mr. Hatch has been on a hunting trip through the southern part of the state. Mr. Hatch is one of the most courteous and obliging agents on the whole line and his many friends are glad to see him back again at his usual post.

Capt. I. A. Bennett left last Saturday noon with Mr. Burgess's yacht, the Sweetheart, and arrived at Jacksonville Monday. The yacht is now on the way to the Merrill Stevens Engineering company in that city, and as we stated last week, her engines will be replaced with new ones, and as soon as the work is completed the yacht will be brought back to Daytona. A light norther caused the yacht to experience pretty rough weather on her trip, and on Sunday the engine broke down, and for awhile the boat was in a dangerous situation.

The Florida East Coast Commercial company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $1,000,000 for the purpose of erecting a sugar refinery, on large cane-planting properties secured by the company in Volusia county. The plant, which will cost about $500,000, will be at Oak Hill. The company will manufacture standard granulated sugar. This is the initiative in what is believed will soon develop into one of the principal industries of Florida. The general offices of the Florida East Coast Commercial company are in the Continental Trust building, Baltimore. George F. Jones is president; Frank H. Callaway, vice-president; M. R. Creighton, secretary; William W. Dix, treasurer, and J. S. Weaver, auditor.

Every person who has a private rig and livery is requested to send it to the Wilkins' Opera House at Seabreeze on Thanksgiving day. The idea is to show the delegates the many beauties of Daytona and vicinity. The Board of Trade are to have a meeting to assist the movement. We hope there will be a general turnout.

The clerics of the Protestant Episcopal church of the diocese of South Florida was in session in Daytona Tuesday and Wednesday. Papers on the following subjects were read: "Uniformity of the Ritual of the Church; whether advisable or not;" "Observance of the Fast Days in the week;" and "Jesuits and their System." Archbishop B. F. Brown, of Titusville, Rev. W. H. Bates, of Sanford, and Rev. Arnold, of this place took part in the meeting. Several other ministers were expected but failed to arrive.

Persons who delight in handling the rod and reel can find no better place than Daytona to enjoy fishing. The Halifax river abounds in various kinds of fish, ranging all the way up to ten or twelve pounds. Those who desire larger and gamier fish can find their fill at the Ocean Pier across the river, where they can enjoy the sea fishing. During the past two months over 6,000 pounds of bass have been caught off the pier, a number weighing over 38 pounds each.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving day.
